

Force the legislature to decide whether the influx of uninvited callers and faxers are doing business legally by intruding upon my home and business. This is a matter of intrastate commerce where it concerns Indiana's Do Not Call List and should be dealt with according to our laws.